MISCELLANEOUS.

MY DEAR FRIEND AMOS—
The medium of the State Journal. I was delighted to hear from you. I judge by the tone of your letter that you are not happy. Is it indigestion alls you, or doesn't the water of Topeka agree with you? In either case I would recommend a thorough course of Harmola or Mexican Soap Root, my carpet cleaning preparation, as a remedy. It works nicety on solled carpets, and have always thought it would be good for a torpid liver. Try it Amos; it won't hurt you. If business is duil with you, call at 307 chandler, and I will employ you ustil you have earned enough to pay the board bill you owe me.

*Boxes north of river.

Fire alarms are sounded upon the tower bell at department headquarters by striking the number of the signal station nearest the fire, in this manner: If for box 4, four distinct strokes and repeated; iff for box 13, one stroke, a short pause, then three strokes, and repeated thus, I-III, I-III, etc. "22" is sounded for all fires within the district bounded by Fifth, Ninth, Jackson and Quincy streets.

Ten strokes, and repeated, followed by the number of the signal station nearest the fire, is the second alarm—for a serious fire.

Three strokes, followed by twelve, and repeated, is the General, alarm for a very dangerous fire, and calls out the entire department with a detail of police.

Two strokes, slowly, indicates fire is out One long whistle from water works, for fires south of river. Three whistles from same, for fires north of river.

Gen. Meyers, who is a laborer, today said that he had secured some fifty or more recruits, and expected that the number would be swelled to 500 by next Monday.

On that day he intends to hold a public immediately meeting on the square, immediately after which his army will march to the Eads bridge and demand free passage over to East St. Louis. Transportation to Washington will be demanded of the railroads, and if this is not granted, he says, the army will take up its march to the capital city.

A JUDGE TAKES ACTION. Orders Arrest of Men Who Seize Trains on the Northern Pacific.

SPOKANE, Wash., April 25.—An order has been issued by Judge Hanford of the United States court, directing Deputy Marshal Vinson to swear in a sufficient force of deputies to guard the trains of the Northern Pacific road from seizure by the commonwealers.

This action was taken because of a report that a concerted movement was on foot to seize trains at Spokane, Seattle and Tacoma.

Bad for Poor Men. Albion, N. Y., April 25.—The Sandstone quarries here which usually em-
